

The Boroondara Cemetery Trust has reviewed all unused graves. The following are double plots purchased at the same time by the same person/s where the Right of Interment has been exercised for one grave and the second grave is unused. The Trust is seeking the current owner or heirs of the original purchasers of the Right. Please contact us immediately if this may be you or someone from your family. The Trust intends to reclaim the unused graves after a period of 46 days from the date of this notice.
